YHWH'S APPOINTMENTS

Sukkot

Leviticus 23:33, 34 "And Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying, 'Speak to the sons of Israel, saying, In the fifteenth day of this seventh month shall be a Feast of Booths, seven days to Yahweh.'"

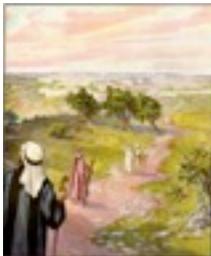

Observed in the early fall (September or October) on Tishri 15th.

The word 'Sukkot', means "booths." It refers to the temporary dwellings that we are commanded to live in during this holiday in memory of the period of wandering.

"You shall sit in Sookkuhs for seven days; all who are native in Israel shall sit down in Sookkuhs, so that your generations shall know that I caused the sons of Israel to live in Sookkuhs, when I brought them out of the land of Egypt; I am Yahweh your Elohim. " Lev. 23:42, 43

Three separate passages outline the biblical observances of Sukkot:

Leviticus 23:33-43
Numbers 29:12-39
Deuteronomy 31:10-13

Events of Sukkot:

- Five days after Yom Kippur
- It is a seven day celebration
- 1st day and the day after the feast (8th day) are to be High Holidays.
- You are to live in temporary built booths.
- It is the last of the three pilgrimages for the Jewish men to go to Jerusalem.
- It is a time to remember Yahweh's faithfulness and goodness (Neh. 8:14-17)

NEH. 8:14-18

“And they found written in the Torah which Yahweh had commanded by Moses, that the sons of Israel should dwell in booths in the feast of the seventh month: And that they should make heard and cause to pass the call in all their cities, and in Jerusalem, saying, Go forth to the mountain and bring olive leaves and wild olive leaves of palm, and leaves of thick trees, to make booths, as it is written.

...And the people went out and brought in, and made booths for themselves, each man on his roof and in their courts, and in the courts of the house of The Elohim, and in the plan of the Water Gate, and in the plaza of the Ephraim Gate. And all the congregation of those who had come again out of the captivity made Sukkoths, and sat under the Sukkoths. For since the days of Joshua the son of Nun until that day, the sons of Israel had not done so. And there was very great gladness. Also day by day, from the first day until the last day, he read in the Book of the Torah of The Elohim. And they performed the feast seven days, and on the eighth day was an assembly according to the Torah.”

Sukkot Recognized

The Service of Sukkot:

- Important day of Remembrance.
- Celebrated with Great Joy
- Because Yahweh had delivered them from their bondage and Yahweh revealed that He wanted to lead them and be their God.
