

Minchah Prayer 03-27-19

"Yet even now," says Adonai, "turn to me with all your heart, with fasting, weeping and lamenting." What hope there is, and thank You for it, in Your Words to us.

No matter that we have strayed, become distant from You, disregarded You, on purpose, out of carelessness, unknowingly. You are willing to be compassionate and merciful and gracious, How convicting, how humbling, what relief.

Thank You Father.

Stir us Father and may we have hearts that respond when we become self absorbed and secure in our own strength and pleasures.

May our joy and peace, may our value come from knowing You accept and are pleased with our worship of You.

May we never get to a place where our worship would not be pleasing, even where You would take our ability to worship from us.

Blessed are You oh Lord.

In Yeshua's name we pray,

Amen
